Stephens, Stephens alone escaped without serious injury. The other three, in the event that it is determined that the animal was suffering from rabies, will undergo Pasteur treatment.

Guy Puckett left at midnight for Austin with the head of the welf where he will submit the specimen to the university for examination. From the brain of the animal it will be determined whether or not it was afflicted. Puckett was bitten on the left head, Willie Freudiger over the temple, and Davis and Stephens on their lower limbs. As nearly as can be ascertained there were no other victims.

EXPLAINS BUREAU MARKETING SYSTEM

OFFICIAL DECLARES OVER 100,000 BALES HANDLED IN 90 DAYS

In a communication to W. A. Walker, Wilbarger farmer, from an official of the Farm Bureau, the work of that organization in marketing its cotton has been clearly set forth. Difficulties ennuntered thus far are also dealt with, and there is a frank discussion of the problems confronting the Bureau. Following is in-part the contents of

"First, about the grade reports. Under our system of handling cotton samples are drawn from bales when they reach the compress and are sent o us here. They are classed for grade and staple and entered on each members' record and a copy sent to the member. The size of this job will be understood when I tell you that we have nearly 15,000 separate accounts with members and have handled over 100,000 bales of cotton in ninety days. Many thousand grade reports have gone out and they are going out every day just as fast as they can be handled at the rate of 1,000 a day.

will leave about $10 a day on its trai most cases. This is no small item when it is understood that two or three thousand cars pass over the Colorado to-Gulf highway each year.

And this number is only a small per cent of the cars going Northwest, most including appendicitis. One dose will of which will pass over this route when it is thoroughly advertised.

Undoubtedly many other counties will follow the example of Wichita and Wilbarger in paving their highwaysas many of them are doing in other parts of Texas. When that is done bundreds of cars will pass this way to

Vernon' will lose, however, if we do not establish a permanent and convenient camp site. Furthermore, Vernon must do her part toward putting the Highway before tourists.

A TIME FOR COURAGE.

Wichita Falls has been called the "City that faith built." The situation did not apparently possess natural advantages for town building. In fact, it was less favorably located, insofar as the eye could see, than many other towns in Northwest Texas.

Its growth has been a result of the faith and courage of its citizens. When thousands of other men were discouraged, J. A. Kemp and Frank Kell projected railroads, as a result of which Wichita Falls became the trade center for a vast territory now leveloping into a rich empire.

With her railroads, Wichita Falls became the center of the industry when oil was discovered, growing 342 per cent in population from 1910 to 1920. Her citizens had builded wisely enough, too, to successfully weather the storm when prices began to decline and business threatened to stop.

The same faith and courage has re sulted in the projecting of more public improvements by Wichita county and ig tabe city than has been done by perhaps other like territory in Texas fury t now plans are perfected for the en Maditure of more than $4,000,000 in paper velopment of a vast storage res and irrigation system which, ful, will make of the territory

ASSOCIATION REFUSES TO DO-NATE ITS FUNDS PRO-MISCUOUSLY

Five calls from transients for help were made in one day to the Wilbarger Welfare Association yesterday. A thorough investigation of each case was made with the following brief summary of the way each was handled.

A cotton picker working in Hardeman county became ill several days ago. He was brought to a sanitarium in Vernon by F. L. Green, Bob Collier and Luther Foot. They gave the surgeon a check for $100 to pay for an operation and for hospital care. Extoo far advanced to save his life. tions of serum and cared for until man's bill was $35 which was paid by Messrs, Green and Collier. The $100 check was returned to them.

No Aid Granted.

Arrangements were made for his funeral, the benefactors paying part cash and giving their note for the balance of the $125 burial expenses. Hardeman county people made up a purse of about $70 for the man before plied to the Wilbarger association for help. It was further brought out that the dead man did not live in Wilbarger policy to his wife for $1,000. She has agreed to repay all expenses. The Welfare Association did not appropriate any money for the case.

A man representing himself to be a discharged soldier, asked for money to member when he enlisted. He claimed he could not get any help here.

"No Work, No Eat."

The final case was that of a man and a woman who came here recently and who remained more or less in a filthy condition. They wanted money. They heaped abuse on the welfare worker when she suggested that they clean up their shack, take a bath and go to work.

Commenting on these cases, it was pointed out by the Association workers that if the "people of Wilbarger county want the Association to pay the funeral expenses of strangers who come in here from surrounding counties, or hand out money to professional beggars, or pay hospital bills, or furnish horses for transients passing through here, or feed persons who will not wash themselves -if the people want us to do these things, then they will have to furnish the money. The funds we have are for the sick and distressed among our own worthy citizens."

Special Notice

To the Merchants of Vernon

The Christmas season is already upon us. This very morning many selections will be made from the various stores and shops of our city of articles and merchandise to be given as gifts on Christmas morning.

The few days remaining between now and Christmas offer the merchants an opportunity to do the greatest volume of business that has been done in months. This trade will naturally go to those who seek it. Your windows, displays and newspaper advertising will prove to be of double value in bringing to the attention of the public the articles you have on hand suitable for gift-making.

The Record is ready as never before to help you with this problem of properly presenting your message to the public. Experienced copy-writers who are capable of properly framing and displaying your advertisements, the finest system of illustrations for free use of advertisers in illustrating their advertising, and a circulation which will take your message straight into the homes of our city and the rich surrounding territory, are a few of the services that The Record is in position to offer you.

Remember it's up to you as to the amount of Christmas business you do. Call the advertising department of The Record. Phone 171—and an advertising man will come immediately.

County Welfare Association Doing Utmost to Care For Needy Cases Coming Under Its Supervision-Mothers Battle Adversity for Sake of Children -Funds Inadequate.

Gripping the heart in their pitifulness, three mothers and their little children are being cared for by the Wilharger County Welfare Association as far as funds will allow. This fact was brought out at a meeting of the executive committee of the association dren, the oldest ten. The father left from was in trouble in a far city. The mother, a native of Wilbarger county, finds it hard to get food for her little ones. She and the oldest child had a bit of work which paid them a total of eighty-five cents a day.

Earnings Inadequate.

The little children need milk. The irregular and scanty income which the weak and frail mother was able to earn was not equal to the task of providing elothing fuel and food. The milk bill increased until it reached ten dollars. A kind hearted dairyman charged off his bill, but the Welfare Association of milk a day for the present.

Another widowed mother is sick. She was operated upon some time ago. The hunger cries of her children sent her back to the wash tub before the incision healed. The wound broke open again and it has never mended. She must have another operation immediately if she is to get well.

Battles Adversity.

Eighteen months ago a certain little family was happy. They had the comforts of a substantial home. The mother, who was not brought up to earn her own living, suddenly found herself alone with four tiny children. They were penniless. With no home, no food, the mother went forth in her inchildren and herself. She finds the battle a losing one. She must have help. The Welfare association is furnishing the children with shoes and Stephens alone escaped wthout serious injury. The other three, in the event that it is determined that the animal was suffering from rabies, will undergo Pasteur treatment.

Guy Puckett left at midnight for Austin with the head of the wolf where he will submit the specimen to the university for examination. From the brain of the animal it will be determined whether or not it was afflicted. Puckett was bitten on the left head. Wille Freudiger over the temple, and Davis and Stephens on their lower limbs. As nearly as can be ascertained there were no other victims.

Hillsdale County a Model.

One of the best examles of what a county can do in getting rld of this destructive disease is found in Hills dale county, Mich. On October 24 : campaign was launched with the idea of cleaning out all the diseased cattle eral inspectors was organized. They divided no the territory, giving a part of a township to each man. The county farm bureau furnished automobiles were leaders in the communities and the county had been tested.

There were 2.339 herds, containing 15,773 cattle, and 375 reactors were found. This means that about 2.4 per cent of the cattle in the county had In sections where the disease is no more extensive than this, the cost of clean-up is almost negligible when compared with the good that must ultimately come from it. In this county the farmers and breeders, and in fact all the people of the county, were enthusiastic, which helped a great deal toward getting the work done in such a short time.

OFFICIAL DECLARES OVER 100,00 BALES HANDLED IN 90 DAYS

In a communication to W. A. Walker, Wilbarger farmer, from an official of the Farm Bureau, the work of that organization in marketing its cotton has been clearly set forth. Difficulties encountered thus far are also dealt with, and there is a frank discussion of the problems confronting the Bureau. Following is in-part the contents of

"First, about the grade reports. Under our system of handling cotton samples are drawn from bales when they reach the compress and are sent to us here. They are classed for grade and staple and entered on each members' record and a copy sent to the member. The size of this job will be understood when I tell you that we have nearly 15,000 separate accounts with members and have handled over 100,000 bales of cotton in ninety days. Many thousand grade reports have gone out and they are going out every day just as fast as they can be handled at the rate of 1,000 a day.

HIGHWAY DEVELOPMENT AND TRAVEL.

It is not too early to begin plans for the development of a tourist camp again in living up to their promise. park which is convenient to town and has all of the little accessories which make such a place attractive to tour ists. Rather than being a sort of wan derer, the tourist is frequently a prost though I had plenty of money it was pector of the most desirable sort.

It is estimated that an automobile will leave about $10 a day on its trail The amount is a great deal more in cases. This is no small item when it is understood that two or three thousand cars pass over the Colorado to-Gulf highway each year.

And this number is only a small per cent of the cars going Northwest, most of which will pass over this route when it is thoroughly advertised.

Undoubtedly many other counties will follow the example of Wichita and Wilbarger in paving their highwaysas many of them are doing in other where half a score pass now.

Vernon' will lose, however, if we do not establish a permanent and convenient camp site. Furthermore, Vernon must do her part toward putting the Highway before tourists.

A TIME FOR COURAGE.

Wichita Falls has been called the "City that faith built." The situation did not apparently possess natural advantages for town building. In fact, it was less favorably located, insofar as the eye could see, than many other towns in Northwest Texas.

Its growth has been a result of the faith and courage of its citizens. When thousands of other men were discouraged, J. A. Kemp and Frank Kell projected railroads, as a result of which Wichita Falls became the trade center for a vast territory now leveloping into a rich empire.

With her railroads, Wichita Falls became the center of the industry when oil was discovered, growing 342 per cent in population from 1910 to 1920. Her citizens had builded wisely enough too, to successfully weather the storm when prices began to decline and business threatened to stop.

The same faith and courage has resulted in the projecting of more public improvements by Wichita county and the city than has been done by perhaps other like territory in Texas. t now plans are perfected for the Minditure of more than $4,000,000 in ripol-veloument of a vast storage resand irrigation system which ful, will make of the territory to Wichita Falls the most lated and valuable of any Corthwest Texas.

ASSOCIATION REFUSES TO DO-NATE ITS FUNDS PRO-MISCUOUSLY

Five calls from transients for help were made in one day to the Wilbarger Welfare Association yesterday. A thorough investigation of each case was made with the following brief summary of the way each was handled.

A cotton picker working in Hardeman county became ill several days ago. He was brought to a sanitarium in Vernon by F. L. Green, Bob Collier and Luther Foot. They gave the surgeon a check for $100 to pay for an operation and for hospital care. Examination showed that the man had appendicitis, also that the disease was too far advanced to save his life Thereupon he was given three injections of serum and cared for until Wednesday night when he died. The man's bill was $35 which was paid by Messrs, Green and Collier. The $100 check was returned to them.

No Aid Granted.

Arrangements were made for his funeral, the benefactors paying part cash and giving their note for the balance of the $125 burial expenses. Hardeman county people made up a purse of about $70 for the man before plied to the Wilbarger association for help. It was further brought out that the dead man did not live in Wilbarger county, also that he left an insurance agreed to repay all expenses. The Welfare Association did not appropriate any money for the case.

A man representing himself to be a discharged soldier, asked for money to go to Oklahoma City. On examination, he had no discharge, did not know his army serial number and did not remember when he enlisted. He claimed to have a wife and three babies under conflicting statements, he was told that he could not get any help here.

The final case was that of a man and a woman who came here recently and who remained more or less in a filthy condition. They wanted money. They heaped abuse on the welfare worker when she suggested that they clean up their shack, take a bath and go to work.

Commenting on these cases, it was pointed out by the Association workers that if the "people of Wilbarger county want the Association to pay the funeral expenses of strangers who come in here from surrounding counties, or hand out money to professional beggars, or pay hospital bills, or furnish horses for transients passing through here, or feed persons who will not wash themselves -if the people want us to do these things, then they will have to furnish the money. The funds we have are for the sick and distressed among our own worthy citizens."

BLIMP MAKES SUCCESSFUL FLIGHT WITH NEW GAS

The geniuses of the United States Navy Department have scored another victory. During the latter part of t ar the Navy Department discovered a non-explosive gas called Helium. Several days ago the new discovery was ested out for the first time on the Navy's new blimp C-7 with success, the air vessel making the trip from Hampton . to Bolling Point, Washington, D. C., without an accident. The blimp is 192 feet long and capable of flying ixty miles an hour. The photograph shows the blimp arriving at Bolling Field. In the lusert is Lieutenant-Com nander Zachary Landsdowne, U. S. N., who was in command of the plane, and the C-7 passing over the Capitol.

County Welfare Association Doing Utmost to Care For Needy Cases Coming Under Its Supervision-Mothers Battle Adversity for Sake of Children -Funds Inadequate.

Gripping the heart in their pitiful ness, three mothers and their little children are being cared for by the Wilharger County Welfare Association as far as funds will allow. This fact was brought out at a meeting of the

One of the mothers has three children, the oldest ten. The father left them one day and when next heard from was in trouble in a far city. The mother, a native of Wilharger county, finds it hard to get food for her little ones. She and the oldest child had a bit of work which paid them a total of eighty-five cents a day.

Earnings Inadequate.

The little children need milk. The irregular and seanty income which the weak and frail mother was able to earn was not equal to the task of providing elothing, fuel and food. The milk bill increased until it reached ten dollars. A kind hearted dairyman charged off his bill, but the Welfare Association will provide the family with two quarts of milk a day for the present.

Another widowed mother is sick, She was operated upon some time ago. The hunger cries of her children sent her back to the wash tub before the incision healed. The wound broke open again and it has never mended. She must have another operation immediately if she is to get well.

Battles Adversity.

Eighteen months ago a certain little family was happy. They had the comforts of a substantial home. The mother, who was not brought up to earn her own living, suddenly found herself alone with four tiny children. They were penniless. With no home, no food, the mother went forth in her inexperience to make a living for her children and herself. She finds the battle a losing one. She must have help. The Welfare association is furnishing the children with shoes and stockings.

"What a pity we don't have the money to take care of our own poor, Dr. E. L. Moore, chairman of the Welfare association declared, at the meet-

& snarling, and vicious, a coyote han amuck in Vernon last night about 9 o'clock, and bit four persons, three of them severely. The victims were Guy Puckett. Willie Freudiger. Roy E. Davis, and Jeff T Stephens, Stephens alone escaped wthout serious injury. The other three, in the event that it is determined that the animal was suffering from rabies, will undergo Pasteur treatment.

Guy Puckett left at midnight for Austin with the head of the wolf where he will submit the specimen to the university for examination. From the brain of the animal it will be determined whether or not it was afflicted. Puckett was bitten on the left he ad. Willie Freudiger over the temple, and there were no other victims.

EARLY MORNING FIRE DESTROYS ODELL BUILDING

Blaze Thought to Have Been Caused By Thieves Who Entered E. E. Crain Dry Goods Co. Store-Work Hard to Save Structures In Vicinity-Trace Robbers to Chillicothe.

The building housing the E. E. Crain Dry Goods Company of Odell and the entire stock of goods was lost in a fire about 2:30 this morning supposed to have been caused by burglars in the store. Insurance of $4,000 was carried on the stock, but the entire extent of the loss is not yet known.

When discovered, the building was in flames, and heroic efforts were made by a bucket brigade to stem the blaze but to no avail. A tailor shop next door was saved with great difficulty. A call was sent for the Chillicothe fire department, but efforts to bring the fighters to Odell failed.

Our Showing of Gift Furniture is Unusually Interesting

Articles that were once considered absolute luxuries are now looked upon simply as necessities. In early days the really fine things were made entirely by hand and by laborious process from start to finish. Quality production has made it possible for even those of moderate means to have household articles not only of general utility but of artistic value as well.

Come in and let us show you "Gift Furniture" that is moderately priced.

Washing Essential.

Nearly all colored varieties look better when washed, and for white varieties washing is necessary. Unless the washing is done properly it had better not be done at all. Provide three tubs for washing. The real washing is done in the first tub and plenty of soap should be used. Fill the second tub with lukewarm water deep enough to cover the chicken. Fill the third tub with cool water which has been "blued" almost as much as for washing white linen. Some exhibitors use the third tub without bluing the water.

In washing, rub soap and lather to the skin and leave on long enough to cut all dirt in the plumage. Remove to the second tub and by gently rubbing with a sponge remove all soap. Rub with the plumage and never against it. If any soap is left on the plumage the feathers will not web out normally, will eatch dirt and cause the hird to look worse than if not washed. Finally plunge the bird three times into the third tub of blued water. Allow it to drain and shake itself. Press out as much water with a towel as possible. Roll the bird in a woolen blanket and place near a fire in a warm room.

If feathers are a little creamy after drying, rub them with pure peroxide of hydrogen. If very creamy, wash the bird over again in a tub containing equal parts of perexide of hydrogen and lukewarm water. The color of white feathers may be improved by sprinkling corn starch over them and working it well down into the plumage after it is thoroughly dry.

Must Clean Thoroughly.

Clean legs thoroughly, remove al dirt underneath scales, using common wooden toothpick and a stiff brush. Apply a little vaseline and rub with a soft cloth to brighten them. The combs, waitles and ear lobes should receive a thorough washing.
